INTERNATIONAL DAY OF WOMEN IN SCIENCE

Tuesday | March 12 | 2024

THE DAVID LOPATIE CONFERENCE CENTRE
WEIZMANN INSTITUTE OF SCIENCE

Dear Women Scientists,

On March 12th, we will gather to honor the International Day of Women in Science, by hosting a TED-style lecture conference.

We are glad to invite each of you (students, postdocs, PIs, and Staff Scientists) to give a 10-12 minute talk about your research, by submitting an abstract to the following link.

The abstract needs to include the title of the talk, and the talk's main idea or main results. It should be written at a level appropriate for scientific audiences of different backgrounds.

The abstract will be selected by an internal committee composed of representatives from different faculties at Weizmann.

Host

Prof. Idit Shachar

Head, Office for the Advancement of Women in Science and Gender Equality
