Annex 2 – Instruction for the preparation of the LIST OF PUBLICATIONS (LOP).

The LOP should be submitted as PDF file and named: LN FNi LOP.pdf

- The List of Publications must be numbered starting from the old and ending with the new.
- The Author names must appear in the order as they appeared in the original scientific publication.
- Both the first and last page of the published articles must be noted.
- The full title, journal name and year of publication must be noted.
- Do not include notices published in advance of a complete publication of each work.
- Retracted Publications – provide exact references for the original publication as well as for the retraction notice.
- Amended publications - publications for which an amendment (addendum / erratum / corrigendum / author correction) was published. Provide the exact reference for all amendments, together with the exact reference for the original publication.
- Within the List of Publications separate under different headings the following items: Refereed articles, invited reviews, Book chapters, Invited editorials, Commentaries, Edited and original books, others. Under a separate additional heading you may include submitted articles. Do NOT include articles in preparation.
- Whenever possible include the Persistent URLs (also called PURLs, stable URLs, persistent links, or durable links) – i.e. internet addresses that remain constant to the publication (e.g. Web of Science, CSA, Safari, Project Muse, BioMedCentral, SpringerLink include DOI numbers within the record. DOIs are unique numbers assigned to digital objects and will not change over time. DOIs are usually found in the abstracts or TOCs, at the top or bottom of an article).
